

I have greatly enjoyed my freedom in leisure time since the Indiana telephone privacy act took effect. Please don't pass federal law that will weaken my state law. The telemarketing coming into my home each week has dropped from 20-25 calls per week to one or less.